In this talk we will present an overview of the Loewner framework for the reduction of dynamical systems both linear and nonlinear. Both time-domain and frequency-domain methods will be discussed, followed by several numerical examples.